Gateway membership

Developing neighbourhoods in Preston

Reasons to join the Community Gateway Association:

- Free membership
- Chance to meet new, interesting people who live near you
- You can help decide how money is spent in your neighbourhood
- You don't have to commit anything or go to meetings (unless you want to)
- Discounts for local shops and services may be available to members from time to time.
- You can elect (and stand for election to) the Gateway Tenant Committee, the body that represents tenants on the CGA
- You will receive a share certificate, a membership badge, special Membership Matters newsletter, plus any other member benefits that the CGA negotiates (such as discounts in services and shops)
- You can get involved in developing the CGA's plans and policies
- Together with other members, you could put a motion to the CGA on matters important to you
- You will become a key part of the CGA. The CGA belongs to YOU and its other members!

About Community Gateway Association membership

All Community Gateway Association (CGA) tenants have the right to become full members of the Association. Leaseholders who pay a service charge to the CGA are also entitled to become full members.

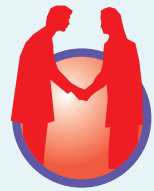

Other residents living in areas where the CGA owns homes can become associate members. Tenants or leaseholders of other housing associations in Preston can also become associate members.

What full membership means

- You can attend and vote at CGA membership meetings

What associate membership means

- You will support the work that the full members of the CGA are doing
- You can vote in any election of resident members to the Gateway Tenant Committee
- You will receive a membership badge, special Membership Matters newsletter, plus any other member benefits that the CGA negotiates.
