Your Tenancy Agreement

Community Gateway Association owns your property and is your landlord.

This Tenancy Agreement sets out your rights and responsibilities as a tenant and those of Community Gateway Association.

This agreement is a legally binding contract between you and Community Gateway Association and records information such as your name, the date you become a tenant and the initial rent. Before you sign the tenancy, you will be asked to provide proof of identification.

Please read this document carefully. If there is anything you do not understand, please contact us for further information.

Other formats

Our communities are diverse and, as such, we have improved the tenancy agreement to make it easier to understand. The tenancy agreement can be made available, on request, in large print, Braille, audio tape or in a different language. We recognise that a number of current and future tenants may not use English as their first language. We have access to a translation service which can help to explain the document in many community languages. If you need this facility before you sign for a tenancy, please let us know.

About your Tenancy Agreement

This is a Tenancy Agreement between landlord' and you 'the tenant(s)'. This Tenancy Agreement is the document

The agreement gives you the right to live in your home. We would not interfere with this right unless any of the following applies:

1 You break any condition of this Tenancy Agreement. If you do, we may take legal action to force you to meet the conditions or we may ask the you move out. In these cases, we will

2 You are living in a property which has been built or adapted for a physically disabled person and

- You no longer need that type of home and
- We need the property for someone else who requires a property with those adaptations.
- 3 We need to demolish, rebuild or carry out major repairs to your property which we cannot do unless provide you with suitable alternative accommodation. This will sometimes be temporary until we can offer you a permanent home.
- Tou do not occupy (or, if this is a joint tenancy, neither of you occupies) the property as your only or principal

5 Any other reason under the Housing Acts of 1988 and 1996, or under any future law.

We will give you reasonable notice if any of the above applies.

Section 1 Your rights as a tenant

1. Right to live in the property

You have the right to live in your home without interruption or interference from us, as long as you, and those living with you or visiting your home, comply with the terms of this tenancy and have respect for the rights of others. If any conditions are broken we may apply to the court to end your tenancy.

You must, however, live in your property as your only or main home and should you vacate or abandon the property then we can take steps to bring your tenancy to an end and remove any items of furniture or personal belongings which remain in the property. We will then hold them for a short period of time to give you an opportunity to collect them, following which we will destroy them. How long we keep these items will depend upon the circumstances of each situation.

2. Succession

If you die, your husband, wife, partner or civil partner may be entitled to the tenancy if they are living in the property as their only or main home at the time of your death. This is called 'succession'. Once you become a full assured tenant, the tenancy can also pass to a relative as long as they have been living with you continuously for at least 12 months immediately before your death. By law, only one succession can take place. If the tenancy is a joint tenancy, only the other joint tenant still living in the property after you die has the right to succeed to the tenancy. There will be no other right to succeed after the death of this tenant.

If your home passes to another member of your family (other than spouse) when you die, we will usually let them stay in the home. However, if the property is larger than is reasonably required, we may take steps to move them to another suitable home, either with their agreement or by following the legal procedure for doing so. If you are living in a property and the property has been adapted for occupation by a physically disabled person or it is our practice to let the property to persons with special needs (and there is no longer such a person living in the property) then we may take steps to move you to another suitable home, either with your agreement or by following the legal procedure for doing so.

3. Right to information and consultation

We will consult you about any decisions we make to do with managing or maintaining housing if these decisions are likely to have a major effect on your home or tenancy. This does not apply to setting rent. You also have the right to information about:

- The conditions of your tenancy
- Our responsibilities for carrying out repairs
- Our policies about consulting you, offering you a home and transferring your tenancy
- Any proposal on transferring housing stock to a new landlord.

You have the right to see certain information which we hold about you in connection with your tenancy. This means that you can check these details to make sure they are correct. If any of these details are incorrect or misleading, you are entitled to apply to have these removed, altered or to add a statement giving your own version of the facts.

You have the right to add your own comments or information to the copy of the details you have given us about yourself and your family in your application for a home or transfer.

4. Right to assign

You have the right to assign your tenancy in certain circumstances.

These include an assignment by way of mutual exchange, a right to assign to your partner if they are not a joint tenant and a right to assign to a family member in certain circumstances.

5. Right to acquire

In certain circumstances, you may have the right to acquire the property in which you live. This would ordinarily involve purchasing the property from us.

6. Right to complain

You have the right to complain about any of our services.

Section 2 Your responsibilities

15. Damage to property

You, or anyone living with you or visiting recklessly damage or deface any property, including your own home, or property which is in the locality of your Gateway Association, to your neighbours, to visitors, the general public, utility also includes anything that may be fitted as a safety item e.g. smoke alarms and putting out fires in your home or in shared areas.

your home, must not tamper with the supply of any gas, electricity or water, or with any other services, meters, or installed in your home or in shared areas. If you cause any damage and we have to repair it, we will charge you for the cost of those repairs.

16. Crime and community impact

You, or anyone living in or visiting your home, must not be convicted of an indictable offence committed in or in the locality of your home. Such offences include, but are not limited to, crimes of violence, theft, robbery, sexual offences, Public Order Act 1986 offences, drug-related offences, criminal damages, burglary and breaches of civil restraining orders and injunctions.

17. Gardens

You must keep your garden well maintained at all times. You are responsible for maintaining all parts of your garden including grass, plants, bushes, hedges and trees. You must keep hedges at a manageable height (not more than one metre high at the front of your home and no more than 1.8 metres at the back). They should not hang over a public right of way.

You must obtain our written permission before you put up or take down any fence or wall. If you install your own fence or wall, then you will be responsible for its maintenance.

You must not erect a greenhouse, garage shed, temporary or permanent structure at your home without getting our written permission. If, and only if, permission has been granted you will be responsible for maintaining the structure.

You must not plant any trees without our permission.

You must not attach to any part of your property, including external walls, fences or other structures, any barbed wire, broken glass or other material which is likely to cause personal injury.

Note: If you cannot look after your garden due to your age or disability you should contact Community Gateway Association.

You must not throw anything through or out of the windows of your home or from balconies or roofs.

You must not place anything on a window ledge, balcony or roof that could be a danger to anyone living in or visiting your home or local area.

Note: Extra Care Schemes -Balconies must not be used for BBQ's, use of any items with an open flame, or charging of electrical items. They must be kept clear of discarded rubbish and must not be used for storage of combustible materials, household items such as redundant electrical goods, furniture or dangerous items. Smoking is permitted on balconies although extra care should be taken to ensure that cigarettes etc. are fully extinguished and disposed of appropriately.

18. Insurance

You are responsible for insuring your home contents. We are not responsible for loss or damage to your possessions

19. Overcrowding

You must not allow your home to become overcrowded. (For clarification and more information please speak to us).

20. Lodgers

As a result of the type and nature of the accommodation within which your home is situated and the need to maintain a supportive and appropriate community it is not appropriate for residents to take in a lodger to share their accommodation with them and for this reason yo are not allowed to take in a lodger. A lodger is a family member or otherwise who rents accommodation in your home or otherwise occupies your home with you.

21. Short term overnight visitors

There may be occasions when you wish to allow a friend or family member to stay overnight. This is permissible on an occasional basis and as long as they do not stay for more than two nights in any 14 day period. For any other short term arrangement, you should first obtain our written permission.

22. Pets and animals

You may keep a cat, dog or small pet at your property e.g. small caged animals such as hamster, budgie or fish.

However, it will be conditional upon you complying with the conditions in this agreement and conditions contained in our Responsible Pet Ownership Framework, and any special restrictions we may impose.

If you fail to comply with these conditions and special restrictions, in addition to any other enforcement action we may take, permission may be withdrawn. Permission will not be granted for:

- Any animal to which the Dangerous Wild Animals Act 1976 applies
- Any dog to which Section 1 of the Dangerous Dogs Act 1991 applies (unless it has been exempted from the prohibition)
- Any dog which has not been microchinned
- Any livestock (which includes but is not limited to cattle, pigs, poultry, donkeys, ponies, horses, sheep and goats).

You and anyone living with you or anyone visiting your property must not allow pets to frighten, annoy or cause a nuisance to anybody. This includes but is not limited to:

- Failing to clean up after your pet
- Failing to keep your pet under control at all times
- Letting your dog bark
- Creating any kind of danger to people's health.

Note: Extra Care Schemes - the above does not apply as we hold a strict no animal policy at these premises (with the exception of guide dogs only).

29. Minor repairs and maintenance

You are responsible for certain minor repairs to your home including:

- Replacing electrical fuses and light bulbs
- Minor plaster work
- Maintaining and repairing anything you have fitted in your home
- Maintaining and repairing anything for which you accepted responsibility at the start of your tenancy or when the tenancy was assigned to you
- Replacing broken toilet sea
- Ensuring that your home is effectively heated and ventilated and that air vents are kept clear and that proper venting arrangements are made for the extraction of water vapour from appliances (e.g. a tumble drier). If any condensation or consequential mould growth occurs as a result of any failure in this regard, you are responsible for its removal

You must tell us as soon as possible about any repair which we have to carr out to your home.

30. Repairs or damage of a serious nature

You are responsible for the:

- Cost of re-glazing windows broken by you, a member of your household or a visitor to your home
- Cost of repairing any damage caused by the police, Community Gateway Association or its agents if they enter your home under a warrant or other legal powers of entry
- neglected by you, a member of your household or visitor to your home
- necessary to your property because you did not report another repair to us or which could cause further damage if not dealt with.

Note: We may carry out such repairs on your behalf but we will charge you the reasonable cost of carrying out this work.

31. External decoration

You must not decorate the outside of your home unless you have our writter permission.

32. Altering or improving your home

You must not alter or improve your home so as to affect the structure or exterior of the property, or remove, alter or replace any of the fixtures and fittings in the property (such as doors, built-in kitchen cupboards, fixtures and fittings in the bathroom, fixed gas appliances or electricity appliances) without our written permission.

Note: Extra Care Schemes - If you would like to make any alterations, improvements or additions to your property including wall fittings (such as wall mounted apparatus), internal and external fixtures or fittings, and/or electrical equipment, written permission must be obtained from the Landlord before any works are carried out.

33. Access

You must let our employees and contractors into your home periodically to inspect its condition, any fixtures and fittings, or to carry out repairs, maintenance or improvement works.

You must allow the Fire Service access to your home to carry out a home fire risk assessment.

We will give you at least 24 hours' written notice if your home needs to be inspected. In an emergency, immediate access may be required.

34. Gas safety

You must allow our employees or contractors access to your home to carry out a gas safety inspection. You must ensure that you have sufficient credit on the gas and electric meters to enable the checks to be carried out.

We will give you at least 24 hours' writter notice, unless it is an emergency.

If you do not let us in, we may take legal action to make you let us in or to allow us to force entry to your home. We may recover any reasonable costs from you associated with such action. Persistent refusal of access may result in possession proceedings being started against you.

Note: Inadequate heating, blocks or leaks in the flue and lack of adequate ventilation can cause carbon monoxide poisoning. Our gas services make sure that your home is safe for you. It is important that we are allowed access to carry out essential inspection

35. Vehicles and parking

You may not park certain vehicles, including a car, a motorbike, a boat, a caravan, a van, or a trailer, within the boundaries of your home unless you have a properly constructed hard standing, driveway or a garage with direct access from the highway, and unless there is an appropriate dropped curb entrance.

You, or anyone living with you or visitin your home, must not:

- Park a vehicle of a type which is designed to be used on the road, such as a car, a motorbike, a caravan or a van, on your property for more than 30 days if the vehicle is unroadworthy. You must not park a vehicle which is designed to be used on the road, and which is unroadworthy, on any other land which is owned by Community Gateway
- Store an 'end of life' vehicle/vehicles intended for use on the road but that would be dangerous to use on a road, within the boundaries of your home
- Park or drive a vehicle, which is intended for use on the road, on any open plan area, footpath or grass verge, other than a mobility scooter
- Park any motor home, caravan, boat, trailer, or business vehicle at your home or on any other land owned by Community Gateway Association without our prior written permission. Any vehicles larger than a transit size (3.5 tonnes or over) will not be allowed under any circumstances
- Build a garage, car hard standing, dropped curb or driveway without obtaining our written permission. You may also need planning and building regulation approval
- Carry out major repairs to any vehicle within the boundaries of your home, on the highway or in any other public or shared area

- Receive any type of payment for the repairing of any vehicle at your home
- Obstruct access to any other home by parking inconsiderately
- Keep vehicles e.g. motorbikes inside the dwelling or in the shared areas, except the keeping of a pedal bike inside the property. Battery powered scooters used by the elderly or disabled are exempt as long as they do not cause an obstruction.

36. Harmful or dangerous materials

You must not keep, or allow anyone living with you or visiting you to keep, dangerous, offensive, harmful or inflammable materials. Only materials that can currently and reasonably be put to medical or domestic use and, in the case of liquids, no more than two litres in quantity, can be kept in your home. You must not store Liquefied Petroleum Gas – propane or butane bottled gas cylinders – in or around your property.

37. Absence from the property

If you intend to leave your home for more than 28 days, you must make sur that your home will be looked after and secure while you are away. You must inform us and provide us with you contact details or the contact details of someone else in the local area who can deal with any emergency on you behalf. You must ensure your rent will be paid while you are away.

38. Ending the tenancy

If you want to end your tenancy you must give us at least four weeks' written notice, ending on either the first or the last day of a period of your tenancy.

If your tenancy is weekly and you pay rent weekly, then the written notice must end on either the Sunday four weeks after service or the Monday four weeks after service.

The notice is served if it is taken or delivered by post to Harbour House. If you do not give proper notice, you will continue to be responsible for the rent and other payments. It is your responsibility to ensure that we receive the notice and that it is properly completed.

You must allow our employees and contractors access to your home to inspect its condition before you leave. You must report all repairs that are needed at your home (before you leave) and replace or repair broken items that belong to us. If you do not, we will carry out the work and charge you for doing so

If you are a joint tenant and one of the other joint tenants gives a proper notice to end the tenancy which complies with the above requirements, then this has the effect of ending the tenancy for all of the tenants. In these circumstances we will consider whether to provide alternative accommodation to the remaining tenant(s) and/or take possession proceedings to remove any remaining tenants if, for example, the property would be under occupied.

You must not allow any person who is not a tenant to remain living in your home when your tenancy has ended. If you have any lodgers or sub-letters, they must leave by the time your tenancy ends.

39. Moving out

At the end of the four-week notice period, you must give us vacant possession of your home. You must return all the keys to us before 12 noor on an agreed day at the end of the notice period. Keys handed in late may result in you being charged an extra week's rent, or, if you fail to return your keys, we can charge you for changing locks and obtaining new keys.

You must pay all rent and other charges which are due up to the date of the end of your tenancy, including any arrears.

When your tenancy ends, you must leave your home clean and tidy. We will charge you the cost of making good any damage you have caused (not including fair wear and tear). For example, we could charge you for the cost of cleaning the sink, toilet, gully or drain, or for moving rubbish or unwanted furniture you have left behind.

You must ensure that there are no animals left in the property when you leave and you must take reasonable steps to ensure that the property is free from rodent or insect infestation.

You must ensure the disconnection of any gas, electricity and water supplies and of household appliances is done safely and properly, and that this meets legal requirements and includes certification, when appropriate.

If you remove any fixtures or fittings which you have installed, you will be responsible for putting the property back to the way it was before you altered it. If you fail to do this, we may charge you for this work All fixtures and fittings you have installed and are leaving in the property must be in good condition and proper working order.

When you leave your home it is your responsibility to ensure that we have your forwarding address in writing. If you should fail to supply us with this, we can continue to treat the property as your address for the purposes of serving letters, notices etc.

40. Insurance

We are responsible for making sure the structure of your home is insured. You are responsible for insuring the contents of your home (your furniture and belongings).

You are strongly advised to take out full contents and tenant's liability insurance for your home. This should cover the cost of replacing broken windows.

If you live in a flat, you should also take out insurance to cover you in case you cause damage to your neighbour's property. Note: Community Gateway Association offers a home contents insurance scheme. Please contact us for more information.

41. Smoking ban

It is illegal to smoke in a public place or at work. The same rules apply to communal halls in sheltered schemes and to shared entrances, lifts and hallways in blocks of flats.

Community Gateway Association can take action against a tenancy if a tenant a member of their family or a visitor, smokes in a 'no smoking' area and it causes a nuisance to other residents. Tenants can still smoke in their homes and gardens, however, with the smoking ban in place, Community Gateway Association aims to create a healthy working environment for all its staff and contractors. If we are working in your home for long periods of time, please smoke in a room where we are not working or, if you are in the same room, customerservices@communitygateway.co.u

open the windows and doors and ensure the smoke escapes without filling the room.

41. Portable gas heaters and portable radiant electric fires

You must not use any type of portable gas heater or portable radiant electric fire if your home is situated within "pavilion style" accommodation.

Otherwise, if you occupy any other style of accommodation you must first obtain our written permission before you can use this type of space heating.

If permission is granted you will at all times have responsibility for ensuring that the heater is serviced on an annual basis and that proof of such servicing (for example in the form of an annual gas safety certificate is provided to us on an annual basis).
